

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I order the information guides?

- You can order all of our guides online here: Advice guides, factsheets and leaflets | Independent Age. If you don't have access to the internet, you can contact the volunteering team who can arrange for leaflets to be delivered to you.
- We have produced a guide to how to order our resources which is available on the Volunteer Resource Hub here: Volunteer resources | Independent Age

Where should I distribute the information guides?

- We have produced a guide on distributing our information in your local community which you may find useful. You can find it on the Volunteer Resource Hub here: Volunteer resources | Independent Age
- We want to get our guides and information into the hands of anyone that may find them useful so have a think about places in your local community which are most commonly accessed by people.

Can I attend events?

- Absolutely! Attending events in your community can be a great way of raising awareness of and distributing our information guides. Remember that you can order up to 50 copies of each of our guides, if you need to order more then please contact: InfoChampVolunteer@independentage.org
- We're always really keen to hear of any events in your local community that you attend so please do make sure that you're letting us know of any events you attend by filling out the Activity Form.
